How Peer-to-Peer Abuse Occurs

Impulsive offense

Acting in the moment

Can happen during times of stress or anger

Peer-to-peer abuse can be prevented

- Clear policies
- Effective supervision

Sexual Behavior in Youth

Sexual Curiosity

Sexual Abuse

Our Passion. Your Protection.

"Information gathering" process wherein youths look at and touch one another

Often trying to determine appropriate gender roles

Typically a voluntary activity occurring between peers of same age group

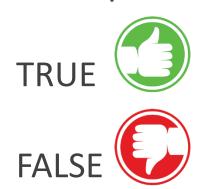

Criterion to be considered are as follows:

- Age difference between youths
- Size difference between youths
- Developmental difference between youths
- Intellectual difference between youths
- Difference in status of peer group
- Type of sexual activity
- Amount of force or coercion
- Reactions of youth involved
- One-time occurrence or repetitive

What Would You Do?

A 14-year old foster child going through puberty is sexually exploring feelings for another child in their foster home or residential setting. It is safe to assume that this is natural curiosity/child development?

It doesn't matter – whether they explore their feelings or sexually act out, we're still going to report it.

It is important to communicate information and report on everything.

How to Report Concern

2. Educate Youth, Staff, and Volunteers

Topics to discuss with youth:

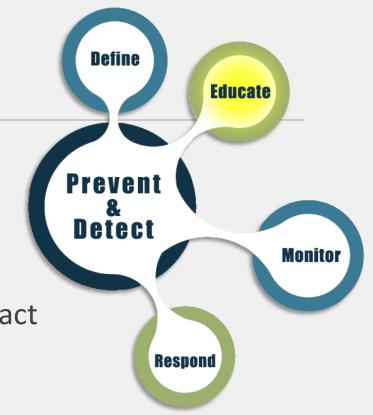

- Acceptable and unacceptable contact
- You have the right to be safe
- If you experience any situation that upsets you, tell us right away
- Your concerns will be taken seriously
- We will do everything we can to protect your rights
- Be a courageous observer

2. Educate Youth, Staff, and Volunteers

Topics to discuss with staff, caregivers and volunteers:

- Acceptable and unacceptable contact
- How to monitor
- High risk activities
- High risk behaviors and group dynamics
- How to report concerns

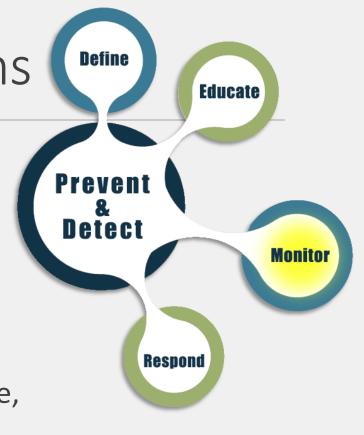

Our Passion. Your Protection.

3. Monitor Interactions

Identify high risk activities

Methods

- Direct observation (constant, routine, and random)
- Electronic surveillance (cameras, motion detectors, baby monitors, window/door buzzers)

3. Monitor Interactions

Engage in a conversation where youth can answer the following:

- Is anyone touching you in a way that you don't like?
- Has anyone said anything to you that made you feel bad?
- Is anyone asking you to keep secrets?
- Is anyone scaring you?

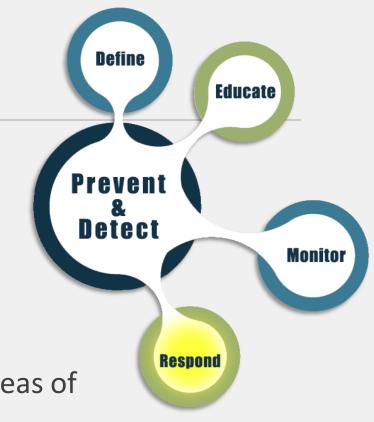

4. Respond Quickly

Guidelines for responding quickly:

 When youth disclose a concern, address the concern immediately.
Do not wait. Take the time.

 Document the disclosure and all areas of related concern.

- Communicate the incident to your immediate supervisor or agency case manager and follow the agency's protocol.
- Report the incident to the Texas DFPS Abuse Hotline within the appropriate timeframes.

Summary

PEER-TO-PEER ABUSE PREVENTION: OUR COMMUNITY, OUR KIDS

Preventing Peer-to-Peer Abuse: The Essentials

Caregivers behavior sets the tone; youth should not define what is appropriate behavior.

There is no standard definition of "normal curiosity."

Monitoring and supervision is key.

Report any sexual activity.

Contact your Agency to learn more about your Serious Incident Reporting Policy and Procedures.

Ask your Agency about free online trainings through Praesidium.

Certificates and CEU Credit

In order to receive CEU credit you must complete an online evaluation by the end of the week. If you are sharing a computer please make sure you complete one evaluation per participant.

Please email qualityandcontracts@oc-ok.org if you need the link to complete an evaluation.

You will receive your CEU certificate within 7-10 business days. All other certificates of completion will be emailed within 48-72hrs.
